Privacy policy of the Intersurgical website

By accessing and continuing to use this Site, you hereby agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with this Privacy Policy, please follow the directions mentioned in different sections of this Privacy Policy or exit from this site.

Non-personal information collected automatically

Intersurgical Ltd. (hereafter referred to as Intersurgical) is committed to the protection of the privacy of its web site visitors. Please note that we monitor statistics about our users, traffic patterns, and site performance information, but these statistics are not shared with third-parties and do not include any personally identifying information (for more information, please see section "Visitor identification & How we use Cookies").

Personal information

In order to respond to your enquiries or manage future interactive user functions it may be necessary to ask for personal information such as your name, address, e-mail address and telephone number. We may use this information to respond to your requests or to contact you via mail, e-mail or phone to inform you of new products, services or promotions that we offer. You will find instructions how to refuse information of new products, services or promotions in the same email or mail or just contact us via Website.

Also if you request a service or submit content to this site we may need to contact you for additional information required to process or fulfil your request.

However, unless compelled by applicable legislation, we will not provide this information to a third party without your permission, except as necessary to process your enquiry or fulfil your requests.

Please note that other Intersurgical companies are not considered as third parties. You can find these other Intersurgical companies in the Website section Contact us. These companies are data processors of your provided data via Website.

This site may use technology that lets us collect certain technical information like your IP address, your browser type, the address of Intersurgical website that you opened and the time when you viewed this site. This information is used only for solving incidents and errors of the website. This information is kept for 6 months after your visit to the website and irreversible deleted after that.

Security

Please note that, although no system of technology is completely infallible, Intersurgical has endeavoured to take appropriate measures to prevent risks of unauthorised access to or improper use of your personal information.

Accuracy of collected data

Intersurgical will, on its own initiative or at your request, update or erase any erroneous or outdated personal data retained in connection with the operation of this Site.
